

COOPER ET. AL., (2020)

Occur when a stimulus property that is only indirectly related to the tact relation evokes substandard verbal behavior such as malaprops.

IN OTHER WORDS

A tact that does not seem to be directly connected to the nonverbal Sd.

SOLECISTIC TACT EXTENSION

EXAMPLE #1

As you are outside on a very humid or muggy day and label the weather as cold.

EXAMPLE #2

*Poor use of language or slang:
Labeling someone as 'salty' rather than angry.*
